DOCKETED

Please state your complaint briefly. Number each of the paragraphs. Please include any specific time period and dollar amounts involved with your complaint. Use an extra sheet of paper, if needed.

For a time period exceeding two (2) years, Iowa Interstate Railroad has failed to provide drinking water for its employees that are working aboard Iowa Interstate Railroad locomotives. Failure to do so is in violation of the regulations set forth by the Illinois Commerce Commission pertaining to rail carriers. The regulations require that an adequate supply of sanitary drinking water is to be supplied to all employees working on all locomotives.

Please clearly state what you want the Commission to do in this case.

Force Iowa Interstate Railroad to comply with the ICC regulation by imposing fines and/or sanctions until the drinking water requirements are met in full
